Davidson’s
Arnhemland Safari Lodge
Mt Borradaile - North West Arnhem Land - Northern Territory

Northern Australia’s most exciting Aboriginal and Wildlife Wilderness

www.arnhemland-safaris.com
Discover the holiday experience of a lifetime in a pristine wilderness environment where the Aboriginal presence encompasses more than 50,000 years. Ancient rock paintings in spectacular galleries depict indigenous history and aspects of the Dreamtime, the spiritual foundation of the Aboriginal culture.

Our safari lodge situated in the remote tranquility and pristine wilderness environment of Mount Borradaile is a region renown for its natural beauty, diversity of landscapes and abundant fauna and flora. Activities include bird watching, billabong cruises, barramundi fishing, visiting rock art galleries, swimming in crocodile free rockholes, bushwalking, 4 wheel drive adventure, bush tucker appreciation, photography, exploring catacombs, investigating paperbark swamps and rainforest, wildlife spotting and viewing the exotic flora in this fascinating ecosystem. Or you can just lay back and relax in this peaceful environment.

You will have the freedom to discuss your preferred activities with your guide who will advise you of your options and then accompany you to ensure you have a rewarding and memorable experience.
Situated in the north west corner of Arnhemland and adjacent to Kakadu National Park and Coburg Peninsular in Australia’s Northern Territory lies a vast sub-tropical savannah that has been described as a national treasure trove depicting ancient human occupation, and a pristine wilderness area hosting myriad ecosystems and wildlife inhabitants.

Intense media interest has resulted in television documentaries and magazine articles featuring the Mt Borradaile region of Arnhemland reaching a worldwide audience.

Entry to one of the most restricted areas of Australia is by permit only, arranged prior to your arrival.

Access to the safari lodge is normally by air charter from Darwin which is a one hour flight or Jabiru which is a half hour flight with both offering stunning scenery. The camp is also accessible by 4wd during the dry season (May-October). Drive time from Darwin is approximately 5 hours.

We operate 12 months of the year.
